"Top 10 Plays in LA!"

...It exposes us to the elements of a seldom-seen culture,
and does it with considerable skill."

-Stage Raw

May 26 – June 5

In this new play, a troubled teen from a broken home receives the culture shock of a lifetime when he is sent to live and work with his grandparents in a Tlingit fishing village in Alaska. This funny, heartfelt exploration of the meaning of family and life emerges in a contemporary coming-of-age story.
